Housekeeping:

- Catch-up for those absent last meeting
 - Quick reminder of what we discussed last time.
- Re-confirm contact information for all Community Council Members
 - All contact information is still accurate and up to date

Business:

- Approve Proposed Trust Land Plan – Principal Hurt
 - Discussed Trust Plans main goal is to improve standard achievement and keep it ongoing.
 - The main priorities of the Plan are English, Math, and Science
 - Discussed that scores were not available to base decisions on since the testing from the Covid years status, scores will be available to use next year.
 - The budget is $118,000 from the Trust Land
 - The action plan for the money is to be used for Teacher FTE's, at Risk Para, and Technology. If any additional money is given it will be used for additional salaries and technology.
 - After discussion it was put to vote.
 - Scott Porter motioned to approve the plan as discussed. Dianne Emerson seconded the motion. All in favor. Vote: 6 For, 0 Nay
 - An email was sent to all members to vote and sign electronically.
- Discuss drafting letter to legislature before final mtg.
 - It was decided at this time the board will not draft a letter this year.
- Other Items: Q & A
 - The only other item discussed was the board for the 2022-2023 school year. The current board members are all planning to return for a second year. However, it was noted that others will need to be added as well since the current board members will be done at Dixie Middle School the following year. Plans on how to find new members were briefly discussed, but it was decided that it could wait until school starts next year to start looking for new members.
- Assignments for next mtg – Chair Scott Porter is to get an agenda to Mike Paxman at least 1 week prior to the next meeting. Secretary Nikki Nelson will take the minutes and email for approval and then send it to Mike Paxman to be posted on the school website. Mike Paxman's email address: (michael.paxman@washk12.org)
 - Next Mtg: next school year

Dustin Drake motioned to adjourn the March Community Council Meeting. Dianne Emerson seconded the motion. All were in favor. Meeting was adjourned at 12:30 p.m.
